

The French bistro company

Sourcing

We pride ourselves in the search for best. We believe in the freshest of artisan produced food and as a result we have create a large catalog of suppliers that can help us determine which menu we will be offering our clients.

At Courances, we have 750 ha of organic agricultural land at our disposable. This is the biggest agricultural land in the region Ile de France.

Romain Alinat in the fields of Chalmont farm.

From ancient wheat to fruits and vegetables, lambs stocks and Ewes cheeses, we can provide the best artisan has to offer. The simplicity of our dishes reflects that.

